

"Rain Star"

My Night to Dawn,
your perfume was the rain,
over the roof of my light eye ...

Near your breath,
My heart 'n soul is a sea,
I'll become the storm of your cry ...

I'll fly from this dream's doss,
making my weepy separation be far ...

Hey, Your arrival, has swept off my heart's sorrows,
now I'm the heart of the rain star ...

Your cloth bears an effigy of the deity's continent,
And you're touching my whitely named snare ...

Pass over my stateless (land less) body, though a moment,
Hey, your crossing dust creates my whitely colored nature ...
